

How to download your eGuide

All makes and models are different -This is a general guide only

IOS iPad & iPhone users

1. Make sure you have the app 'iBooks' on your device first.
2. An email would have been sent to you, open it on your device.
3. Select the first download in the list if you have ordered more than one eGuide.
4. You may be prompted like in the image below. Do you want to download? Tap the download button.
5. Your device will then take you to the last place you had open in safari, DON'T PANIC! Things are working in the background. Can you see the tiny word 'mail' in the top left of image three? Tap that to return to your mail to download your next file.

6. When you have hit download for all your files and you are returned once more to the Safari screen, tap the download icon at the top of your screen. Here you will be presented with all your files downloading.
7. When all your files have finished downloading, just tap one. It will then automatically land in 'Books' for you.
8. To return back, look for the word Safari again in the top left corner of your screen.
9. Wait until your new eGuides have been fully downloaded before opening. They will say NEW when they are ready.
10. To lock your IOS device in portrait mode so you can read the maps, pull down with your finger from the right hand corner of your screen. To lock your device, tap to button circled.
